

How many? How much?

	countable (eggs, apples)	uncountable (milk, bread)
+	There are some eggs. There are a lot of eggs.	There is some milk. There is a lot of milk.
-	There aren't any eggs. I haven't got many eggs.	There isn't any milk. I haven't got much milk.
?	Are there any eggs? How many eggs are there?	Is there any milk? How much milk is there?
small	a few eggs	a little milk

Rule of thumb

Count it? → many, a few, How many. Can't count it (milk, water, bread, rice)? → much, a little, How much.

Eslatma

'Non', 'sut', 'guruch', 'suv' — sanab bo'lmaydi: 'two breads' emas, 'two pieces of bread'.
Sanaladigan: 'tuxum', 'olma' → eggs, apples.