

How to run the speaking check

- Do it during the week of the quarter test: 3 minutes per student, in pairs or one-to-one while the class works on a quiet task.
- Start with an easy warm-up (name, age). Then ask 3–4 questions from the quarter's card; repeat or rephrase once if needed.
- Score with the rubric (maximum 6). Record it next to the written test; it does not replace the written mark — use it to give a fairer overall picture.

Rubric (6 points)
